

2010
Best of Arizona Thumb Butte Festival
Prescott's Premier Art & Heritage Celebration
Presented by the Prescott Area Arts & Humanities Council
Application

If you are a Host Venue, please complete all parts of this application. If you are an Individual Applicant who plans to participate at a Host Venue, please list the "Name of the Venue," skip the remainder of Part (A), and complete Part (B) of the application. If you are an individual who would like to participate at a Host Venue and need help finding one, please write NONE by "Name of Venue or Studio" in Part (A), then complete the remainder of the application. We will make every effort to match you with a location that compliments your media/talent.

Applicants that have not participated in PAAHC's previous Festival (2006, 2007, 2008, or 2009) must include images of your work and venue location. If your application is not accepted, fees paid will be fully refunded.

VENUE SCHEDULE & DESCRIPTIONS: Art demonstrations, discussions, performances, historical reenactments, and/or any other educational event that would draw the attendees to your location are required at each venue, on Saturday and Sunday from 1-4 pm during the 2010 "Best of Arizona" Thumb Butte Festival. Applicants/Venues with a large number of interesting events/participants are more likely to be accepted. These requirements may vary for performing art & historical reenactment groups that must schedule an event/performance on a specific day/time. If you would like to plan your events according to a schedule, please include the times for your events on the application. Where possible, we will include these times on the schedule. Priority space for these times will be given to performance & reenactment groups that must stick to a schedule. Please describe events that will be included at your venue. In addition to artist demonstrations an event could be: a) Discussion of what inspired an artist to create a specific piece of artwork, b) Poetry reading, c) Music or dance performance, d) Staged reading or work-shopping of a play, e) Historical Reenactments, f) Other. Where appropriate, please list both a time & day and a brief, but specific description for each event at your location. Sell it! (If you need more room than provided on this page, please use a separate page.)
